Hi! We are a group of friends who imagine matches for a trip to Brazil.Our names are Gaia,Vincenzo,Rita Antonio and Luigi.We left Italy an arrived in Brazil 23 hours later.We pulled up to a hotel,spent the night there.The following morning we setout on our journey,starting to taste de brigaderio and the bombocado.We went to visit copacabana beach,we bathed in its crystal clear water.For launch we ate feijonda and churrasco, drinkinga very good guaranà. We went to rio de janeiro,precisely,in the Tijuca park wich boasts of te larges urban forest on the planet.We set up tents in the evening, and spent the night in nature. The following day shuttle passed to pick us up which made us explore Salvador famous for the capoeira which is a martial art, which we tried having a lot of fun. We boarded a little train that took us to the corcovado massif to admire Christ the Redeemer.Walking through the streets of the rio where our hotel was located,we caught the carnival parties, we were overrwhelmed by floats and parades. We rolled up oure sleeves, took our bags and went back in Italy.It was a fabulous trip I recommend it to everyone.
